

Psychoanalysis' Transition from the 20th to the 21st Century: The Evolution of a Unified Clinical Psychoanalytic Model

A Two-Day Workshop Taught By

Alan Karbelnig, PhD, ABPP
Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst, New Center for Psychoanalysis

On

Saturday and Sunday, January 7 and 8, 2017

At

No.20, Donghai Plaza, Yuyuan East Road, Jing'an (静安区豫园东路20号东海 广场)
*Shanghai, China

Syllabus

I Day One – Saturday, January 7, 2016—The Evolution of Modern Psychoanalysis

- a. Registration—830am to 9am
- b. Introduction—9am to 930am
 - i. Overview of program
 1. Topics:
 - a. Reviewing evolution in psychoanalytic theory from British Object Relations to Self-Psychology, Intersubjectivity, and Relational Psychoanalysis.
 - b. Introducing a unifying clinical nomenclature

- c. Overview of British Object Relations Theory—1000am to 11am
 - i. Foundations in Freud and Klein
 - ii. Fairbairn
 - iii. Winnicott
 - iv. Balint
- d. Tea break—11am to 1115am
- e. Transition to contemporary psychoanalytic models—1115am to 1230pm
 - i. The evolution from modernism to post-modernism
 - ii. Self-Psychology
 - iii. Intersubjectivity
 - iv. Relational psychoanalysis
- f. Lunch break—1230p to 130p
- g. A nomenclature for unifying clinical psychoanalysis—130p to 245p
 - i. Framing
 - ii. Presence
 - iii. Engagement
- h. Case examples
 - i. Carlos
 - ii. Gilda
 - iii. Ramona
- i. Tea break—245p to 300p
- j. Discussion—300p to 400p
 - i. Review of Topics Covered
 - ii. Question and answers

II Day Two—Sunday, January 7, 2016—Pragmatic Experience with a Unifying Psychoanalytic Nomenclature

- a. Questions and Answers from Prior Day—9am
- b. Additional Thoughts on Psychoanalysis—930am
 - i. Viewing psychoanalysis as performance art
 - ii. “My body is my instrument”
 - 1. How personality and personal style feature so prominently in psychoanalysis
- c. How more commonalities than differences exist in clinical psychoanalytic theory.
 - i. Wallerstein’s “plethora of theoretical metaphors”
- d. Can there be a psychoanalytic theory of mind?
- e. More Case Presentations of Individual Therapy
 - i. Geoff
 - ii. Jennifer
- f. Tea Break—11am
- g. Additional Case Presentations of Couples’ Therapy—1130am
 - i. Phil and Lois
 - ii. Joe and Sally
- h. Lunch Break—125pm to 115pm
- i. Case Presentations from Participants—115pm
 - i. Case No 1
 - ii. Case No 2
- j. Review of Workshop Concepts—245pm
 - i. Summary
 - ii. Questions and Answers
 - iii. Adjourn—330pm